Read the following:

From the Commissioner of Labour (Factories) K.1.No.7252/53 dated 4.4.1953.

O R D E R

Under the rule published with Public (Services) Department notification No.16 dated 26.1.1950 at page 272 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette dated the 7th February 1950 the Governor of Madras hereby directs that rule 5 of the 'ad hoc' rules relating to the posts of Assistant Inspectors of Labour in the Madras General Subordinate Service published with Development Department Notification No.1073 dated the 26th October 1948 at page 1075 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 9th November 1948 as subsequently amended, be relaxed in favour of the persons mentioned below and that their probation in the category of Assistant Inspectors of Labour be extended upto 30th September 1953:-

1. Sri M. Sankarakumaradoss
2. Sri K. Ramadass and
3. Sri T.K. Marannan

As regards Sri V. Ramanathan and Sri S.B. Thangal, since they have completed two years of duty only on 7.7.1952 and 13.6.1952 respectively, the Commissioner of Labour himself can extend their probation upto 7.7.1953 and 13.6.1953 respectively (i.e.) the dates subsequent to the last date of the examination in the Accounts Test to be held in June 1953. When their probation is thus extended they will continue to be on probation till the results of the examination are known under general rule 22(b) (ii). The Commissioner of Labour is therefore requested to take action accordingly.

Sri K. Sankarakumaradoss has requested that as he was 53 years old he might be exempted from passing the test. The Commissioner of Labour is requested to examine the request and submit proposals in due course if necessary.
